“Raising the Quality of Teaching in the European Classroom” - Targeting the improvement of basic skills and exploring innovative ways of individualized teaching and learning

October 22nd – October 25th, 2015 in Schwerin – Mecklenburg-Western Pomerania

The Ministry of Education, Science and Cultural Affairs of Mecklenburg-Western Pomerania in cooperation with the German National Agency in the field of school education - PAD (Pädagogischer Austauschdienst der Kultusministerkonferenz, Educational Exchange Service of the Standing Conference of the Ministers of Education and Cultural Affairs) is very pleased to invite you to the contact seminar “Raising the Quality of Teaching in the European Classroom” from October 22nd to October 25th, 2015 in Schwerin/Germany.

Target group

The contact seminar is targeted at school leaders and teachers of pupils aged between 6 and 14 years

NA-representatives in charge of strategic partnerships (school-to-school partnerships) in Erasmus+ are also invited to participate in the contact seminar and to offer their expertise and advice to participants and potential applicants.

The contact seminar offers an opportunity for school leaders and teachers to work together on topics of mutual interest.

Participants will receive information about the Erasmus+ programme in general and about Key Action 2 – Strategic Partnerships in detail, how to fill in the application form, good practices, etc.

Participants will get necessary support to find partners, to detail project ideas and to start preparing the project application.
