

Digital International Collaboration in Education

A seminar in connection to the Nordplus programme committee meeting in Tampere

Date: Thursday, May 26, 2016, 1–4.30 pm

Place: Auditorium A3-27, Tampere University of Applied Sciences, Kuntokatu 3, Tampere

Chair: Head of International Services Kirsi Jokipakka, Tampere University of Applied Sciences

13 Welcome!

Digital and Pedagogical Change in Education

Project Manager Olli Vesterinen, Ministry of Education and Culture, Finland

13.45 Project NEMO: Working Towards Empathy-enabling Digital Environments

Team leader, researcher Katri Saarikivi, Cognitive Brain Research Unit, University of Helsinki

14.15 Coffee Break

14.45 Case Shows on International Collaboration Enhancing Digitalization in Education

I School and youth education: Digital collaboration between Kaakkurin koulu, Oulu, Finland & Vester Skole, Middelfart, Denmark

Teacher Vibeke Vedsted Andersen, Vester Skole, DK

II Higher Education: Strategizing Digitalization at Tampere University of Applied Sciences

Development Manager Ilkka Haukijärvi, Tampere University of Applied Sciences, FI

III Adult Education: Nordic Network for the Adult Learning NVL's interactive webpages and network collaboration and EPAL (Electronic Platform for Adult Learning in Europe)

Programme Manager Anni Karttunen, Centre for International Mobility CIMO, FI

IV Open and distance learning: Video Systems in Education for Open and Distance Learning

The international ViSE project produces an interactive guidebook on implementation of video learning systems, Massive Open and Online Courses (MOOCs) to develop the skills of school staff towards implementation of video learning systems and teaching practice with use of video learning systems.

Head of E-learning Gytis Cibulskis Kaunas University of Technology, LT

Q&A with audience

16 Discussion: What kind of digital international collaboration is requested in the Nordic and Baltic countries? How could the Nordplus programme enhance the development in the best possible way?

The discussion is led by Nordplus Main Administrator, Special Adviser Henrik Neiiendam Andersen, Danish Agency for Higher Education

16.30 The seminar ends