

Erasmus+ Thematic Seminar in Iceland on teachers training and digital society
Preliminary programme

Sunday 27th of November

	Thematic Seminar: Teachers training in the 21st Century-Digital learning-international strategy
19:00-21.00	Why are we here? Opening of the Thematic seminar and light refreshments Introduction of participants, icebreaking and networking

Monday 28th of November

09:00-9.15	Erasmus+ - The future is ours. Opening by Mr. Ágúst Hjörtur Ingthórsson, head of the Icelandic NA
09.15:10.00 Key-note speaker from the EU	N.N. How can we prepare the teachers for the 21 st Century? Is digital learning the answer? Overview of the Digital Agenda set by the European Commission.
10:00-10:30	Addressing the future of ICT and education in teachers' professional development at the University of Iceland. Mr. Tryggvi Thayer, University of Iceland
10.30-10.45	Coffee break
10:45-11:15	Digital and distance learning in Tröllaskagi Secondary School in North Iceland
TENTATIVE	The iPad implementation the primary schools in Scandinavia (tentative Not confirmed)
12.30-13.30	Lunch
13:30-14:30	Bus trip to Selfoss
14.30-16.00	Visit to Árborg Community in South Iceland. Optional for upper-secondary teachers is to visit the FSU Community College in Selfoss. www.fsu.is
16.30-17.00	Sight seeing in Stokkseyri
17.30-21.00	Dinner at the famous Lobster restaurant „Fjörubordið” at Stokkseyri http://www.fjorubordid.is/

Tuesday 29 November

09:00 – 09:15	Review from the first day
09:15 – 12:00	World Café- Plenary session on networking and preparing applications where the Erasmus plus programme. Three Good practice stories from three different countries
12:00 – 13:30	Lunch
	End of Thematic Seminar
14.00-17.00	Informal Nordic School meeting

